Safety Incident or Concern Reporting

We want you to be safe so we have a system which is all about sharing concerns and experiences that may have a safety implication.

It is natural and human to make mistakes so rather than just hide your experience or concern away why not tell us. We won't point the finger of blame, BUT we will thank you for helping Lucky Ewe to maintain high safety standards and good working practices.

We would like your name but don't think we won't listen if you decide not to give us it ... it's completely up to you.

Tell us what happened, who was involved, what your concern is:

(Please continue overleaf if needed)

Do you know the time and date this happened? If so, please tell us here:

Thank you so much for your report: we will keep it and use it to try to improve things. If you would like to be told more about this, please leave us your name and contact number. We promise that we will not tell anyone else that you have made this report.
